

NUCLEAR WEAPONS AND SOCIAL JUSTICE

WHY FIND INTERSECTIONALITY?

There is no such thing as a single-issue struggle because we do not live single-issue lives.

Audre Lorde

Concern

Generation Possible
already has many concerns.

"I barely remember the World Trade Center. We have more issues that are more prevalent in our back yards. Let's just think about prejudice we have to our own people before we go outside."

THE MONEY

- $1.7 trillion over 30 years, with inflation
- $4.6 million every hour, for the next 30 years

WHAT COULD WE SPEND THAT MONEY ON INSTEAD?

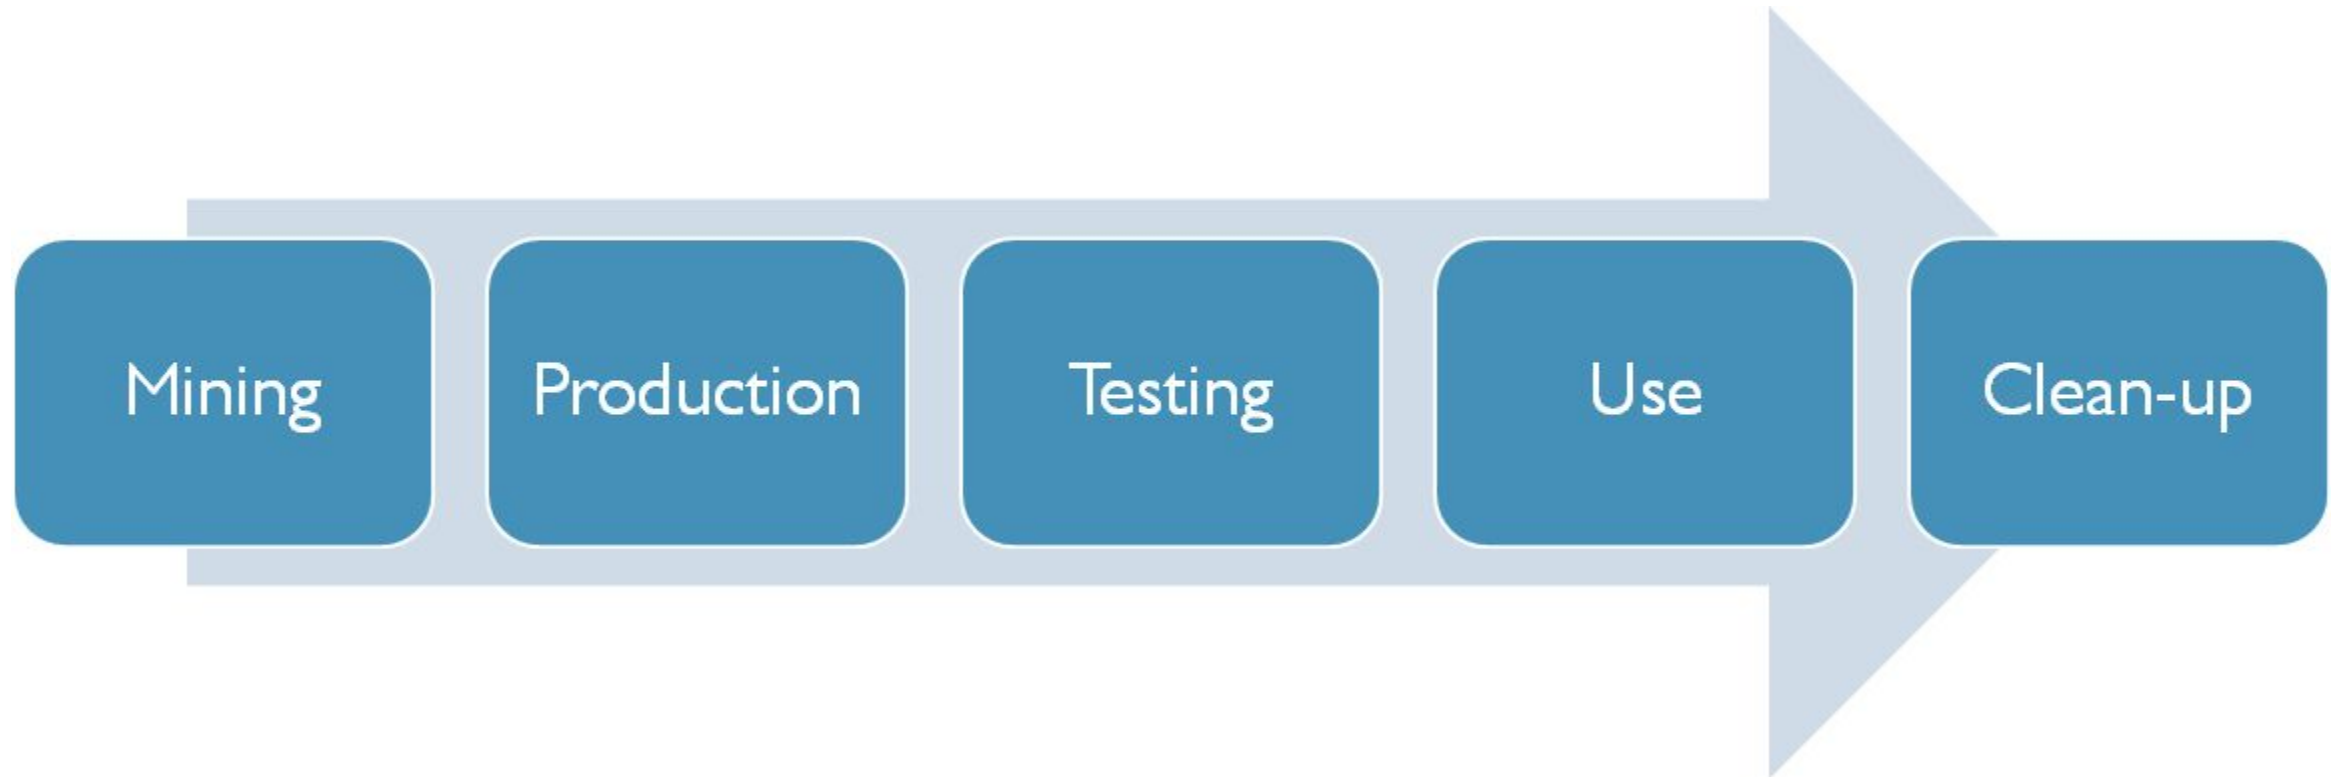

10 YEARS OF NUCLEAR WEAPONS FUNDING

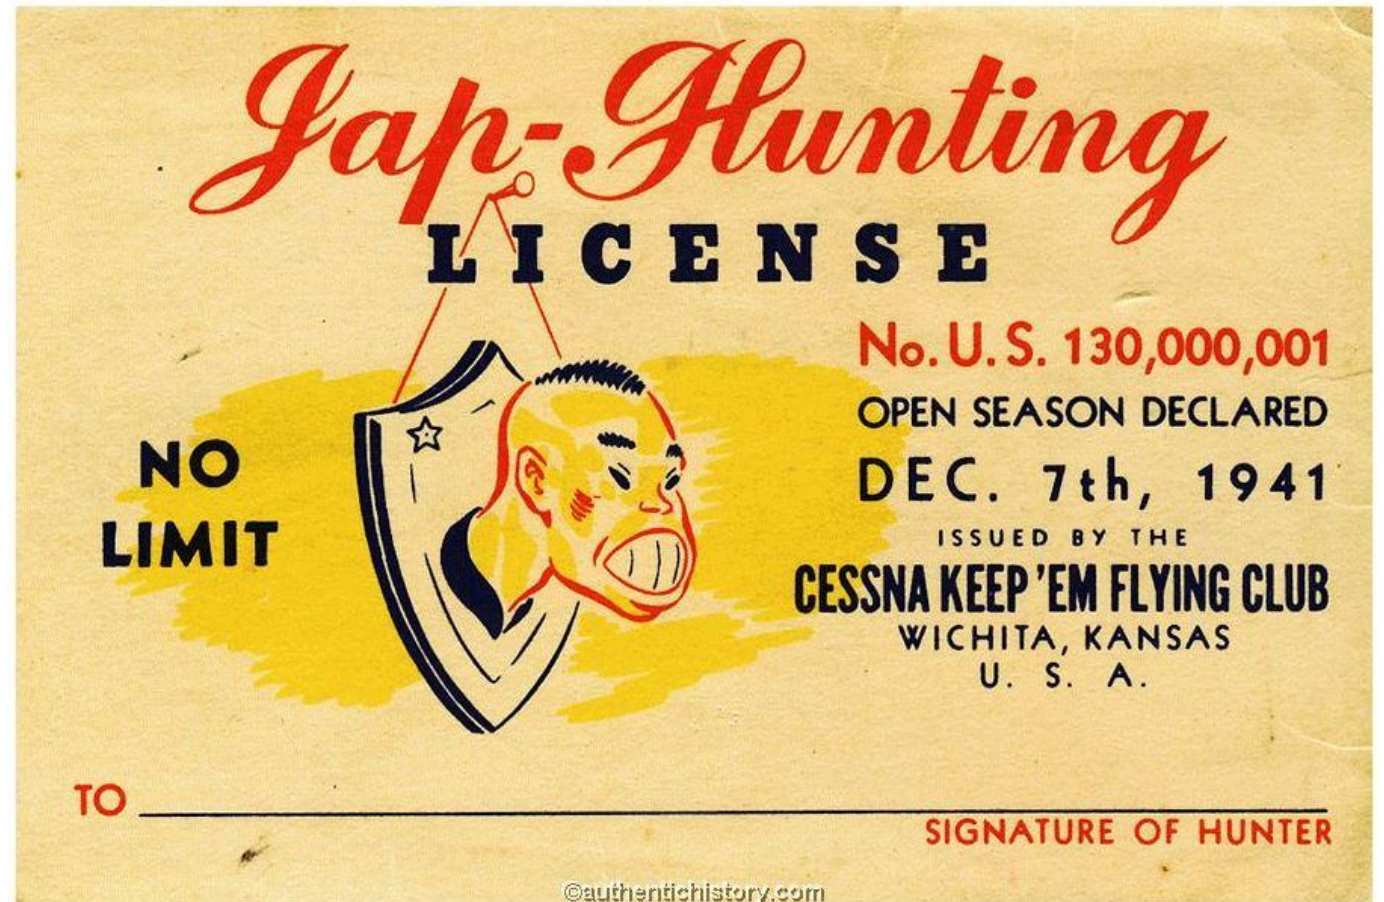

NUCLEAR COLONIALISM

- “Nuclear colonialism is a system of domination through which governments and corporations disproportionately target and devastate indigenous peoples and their lands to maintain the nuclear production process.” - Danielle Endres, Assistant Professor of Communication at the University of Utah
- People of color, indigenous people, and colonized peoples are most often the victims of nuclear weapons production and use, and are inadequately compensated by the governments and corporations that perpetrated this violence.

@realDonaldTrump

North Korean Leader Kim Jong Un just stated that the “Nuclear Button is on his desk at all times.” Will someone from his depleted and food starved regime please inform him that I too have a Nuclear Button, but it is a much bigger & more powerful one than his, and my Button works!

MOVING FORWARD

- How can use this information to talk about nuclear weapons differently?
- How can we connect with unlikely allies?
- How can we support and stand in solidarity with others?
